White Wine

Young wines are aromatic and vibrant, with notes of golden apple, white fruits, tropical hints, and white flowers. Their taste is fresh and balanced.

With time, the wine's color deepens to a rich golden yellow, while its aromas unfold into complex notes of acacia, jasmine, lime, and ripe fruits, complemented by delicate mineral hints. The flavor becomes fuller, more structured, and persistent, leaving a smooth, lasting finish.

Red Wine

The wine opens with vibrant aromas of ripe raspberries, cherries, and red flowers like rose or peony. On the palate, it is warm and smooth, with crisp freshness and firm tannins.

As it matures, its bouquet deepens with layers of black fruits, spices, dried flowers, coffee, and cocoa, occasionally hinting at animal scents. The taste becomes rich and velvety, with balanced tannins and a lingering, complex finish.
